Introduction

If you're determined to achieve new things, then we'd love to teach you some new skills!

We'll do more than teach you about building things like fences and pergolas - we'll also sit down with you to determine the skills and attitudes you need to get working!

The Construction programme offers training in a wide range of skills that can lead you into employment in several areas, such as woodworking, carpentry, furniture making or construction.

It is ideal for people wishing to learn new skills and gain qualifications, with the ultimate goal of entering into employment.

The programme includes

- Woodworking - which involves calculating job specifications, the use of appropriate equipment including hand tools, electric tools, band saws, planning machines, circular saw benches and sawing machines
- Construction - which involves preparing sketches and drawings and applying the principles of linear measurements to building calculations. Projects could include fences, decking, building on concrete piles or garden furniture
- Health & Safety - involving safely using equipment, first aid and OSH requirements
- Personal development to further enhance your skills for the workplace. You'll be able to develop essential attributes such as personal presentation, cultural and community awareness, time keeping, team work, dealing with stress and communicating in a working environment.

All programmes offer

- Practical hands-on training
- CV preparation or updating
- Work experience
- Career planning and job search
- Drivers licence assistance
- Literacy and numeracy tuition
- NZQA units and/or qualifications
